

GREETINGS AT THE SOUTH CAROLINA FAITH LEADERS BREAKFAST WITH VICE PRESIDENT JOE BIDEN
ALLEN UNIVERSITY JH ADAMS GYMNASIUM
Tuesday, October 14, 2014

Good Morning!

Grace and Peace to Everyone here on this marvelous morning that the Lord has made for us.

I extend exteem Honor to Mr. Vice President, Joe Biden, Chairman Jaime Harrison, Congressman James Clyburn, Senator Vincent Sheheen and special Greetings to each and every Faith Leader present.

As Faith Leaders, We unite together to be motivated to mobilize all of our congregations to Commit to Vote before and on November 4, 2014.

Firstly,

On behalf of the South Carolina Democratic Party Faith Caucus, I want to say Thank you.

Thank you for encouraging and directing us to have the faith that All of our Bad is Good, for all things work together for the good. Thank you for leading us to transform our trials in our lives into spiritual paths of joy. Thank you for being the Faith Leaders and the churches, that are the cornerstone of our communities. As Mr. President, Barack Obama, wrote in one of his books, “Out of Necessity, the Black church ...has had to serve as the center of the community’s political, economic, social as well as spiritual life. He further wrote, that it understood in an intimate way the biblical call to feed the hungry and clothe the naked and challenge powers and principalities. He wrote that he was able to see FAITH as more than just a comfort to the weary or a hedge against death; rather, it was an active, palpable agent in the world.

Secondly, the focus of the SCDP Faith Caucus is to provide a forum of contact for faith leaders to meet one another and collectively work towards being a strong force for the common good in our communities. We want to be Faith Leaders that resonate strong values of social and economic mobility. We want to prioritize caring for those in need, and share in the responsibility and make a deeper commitment to be our brothers and sisters keepers and to everyday Americans the right to Vote and Voter Protection, Being lifted out of poverty, Immigration Reform, Religious Liberties, Access to Health Care For All, Equal Justice For All, A 21st Century Public Education, Revitalize our Economy and lower unemployment, Save our Environment and Build Up Our Families.

Lastly,

We, the People of Faith, Have the Faith that South Carolina can be a better place for All of us. As Faith Leaders we ask you to take the lead to send Souls to the Polls. Please join in with us and help us to make certain that all of our congregations commit to vote. As you return back to your valley of cities, be more committed than ever to do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with our God!

This is my humble prayer.

Thank you and

God Bless you
